Special Village Meeting Called For April 5—Pres. Reeves Addressed Community League.

(Mrs. E. J. Blodgett, Correspondent.)
A special village meeting was called for Wednesday, Apr. 5, at which a number of matters require to be voted upon, questions of bonds for the electric light plant repairs, of extending the system, of how much money shall be put into new sidewalks, etc., all matters of importance which should be carefully considered before a decision.

Mrs. R. H. Moore was a guest of Miss Stella Allen at St. Johnsbury Center last week.

The speaker at the Community league meeting Monday evening was President Ira L. Reeves of Norwich university. As a military man, his acquaintance with the present-day conditions made his remarks most valuable. Although he could not, in his position, say much about preparedness, he could give the audience many facts of interest. The supper this week was furnished by the Congregational Ladies Aid society and the other churches with various subsequent suppers.

The Girls' Saturday Night class met last time in the G. A. R. hall, their work being on aprons cut from patterns approved by the home economics colleges. The hostesses were the Misses Hovey and Hutchinson.

The ladies of the Universalist church served an excellent supper Friday afternoon.

Miss Marion Shattuck is spending her school vacation entertaining the chicken pox.

Miss Dorothy Dexter observed her tenth birthday last Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 22, by a pleasant party to which 12 of her girl friends were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dodge have returned from a trip to Georgia, where they visited Mrs. Grace Hutchinson and family. The Dodoses stopped in Boston with their son, Dr. Ralph Dodge, for a few days on their way home.

Mrs. Frank Silsby and her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Knight, have gone to Dayton, Fla., to spend a little time and return home with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silsby. Mrs. F. W. Silsby's sister, Mrs. Fanny Sargent of West Burke will remain here and care for Mrs. Knight's little daughter, Frances.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cable recently visited his mother, Mrs. L. E. Cable, at St. Johnsbury, who has been ill, but is now improving.

The Rev. R. H. Moore exchanged pulpits with the Rev. Fred Wilcock of Lyndon last week, Sunday evening. The April meeting of the Lyndon Union club, which comes next Tuesday afternoon, will be in charge of the Art committee. There is to be a fine exhibit of pottery sent by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. At this meeting there will be a report from the nominating committee.

A. J. Smith, who is inspecting Vermont and Union Mutual risks in this town of Lyndon spent Sunday at his home in South Ryegate.

Miss Della Geer is absent from her work at Ellsboro for a few weeks and is at her home in Newark caring for her sick mother.
